Political Notices.

At a Meeting of the NEW-YORK LIQUOR DEALERS' SOCIETY, held on the evening of the 2d day of October, 1858, it was voted to support the Electors of City Council and County, and to oppose the Electors of City Council and County, who were unanimously adopted:

To the Electors of New York.

Our interests as a class, and the mercantile community, which have so much to do with the prosperity made up of agriculture, are to present to you some facts which we consider worthy of your consideration.

It is proposed by many that we are opposed to any such law as would prohibit us from having traffic in spirituous liquors, and at all events, any restraint. This opinion is erroneous.

We, on the contrary, desire, in favor of a fair and equal taxation, that such a law should impose heavy restraints and safe guards upon the importation of liquors.

The amount of capital invested in the trade is estimated by us at $100,000,000.

From it, the Government derives a large revenue.

It is recognized as a legitimate one, and yet it lately prevails that it is to be curtailed by our Legislature.

But, let us consider those who are engaged in the sale of spirituous liquors. Those efforts, to a great degree, have been rewarded with success. Laws have been enacted prohibiting the sale of liquors, the amount of millions and millions more severe than are usually awarded to high misdemeanors. Penitentiary, for the time, had control of the laws of our Legislature, and in its reckless career enacted those laws which are now the highest judicial tribunals of our State, declared unconstitutional.

In "Union strength" and we will trust that the honest and patriotic men of our party who will be in our interest to elect AMOR J. WILLIAMSON—a man who will fairly and honestly represent the District. We can elect him if we all put our shoulders to the wheel and to the Union—place.

We have too much faith in the intelligence of the people to believe that they will allow themselves to be deceived by the Levee-Comptons, as we have reason to fear that any considerable number of professed Americans or Republicans were induced to betray their principles and stake in this cause by the personal ambition of some who were of great political influence.

The number of legal voters we can present to the polls is not so great as we desire, but by our united efforts we can insure victory.

It is owing to the influence which we control, the justness of our cause, and the energy of our action, that the Prohibition law, after wavering through one year of ineffectual attempt at to pass, was finally passed.

But, let us consider those who will be compelled to obey such a law as this. They will be compelled to obey our law, and to comply with its requirements.
